This loft is all about you! It is a fantastic and quietly located loft in the former stables of the oldest preserved cavalry barracks in the Netherlands (National Monument Lancierskazerne). Walk to the city centre in two minutes for shopping or to the bustling Piushaven in five minutes for the finest restaurants. After an active day, you can relax on the couch, listen to music, or enjoy a wonderful wellness moment in the freestanding bath. This exclusive, open-air, one-bedroom apartment is located in Tilburg's city centre. As you enter through the rustic wooden door, you will immediately glimpse the stylish industrial design, the metal stairs, the freshly renovated wooden beams and the bright lights shining through the roof windows. The dining area is connected to the fully equipped kitchen, where, besides the essential appliances, you'll also find a dishwasher and a microwave and oven combo that makes life easier when it comes to cooking. You will get to the cosy living room from the dining area, which features a TV with a comfortable sofa and coffee table to enjoy leisure time. The classy metal stairs guide you to the bedroom and the bathroom. The open-space bedroom has a comfy double bed and a closet for your personal belongings. The luxurious bathroom features a walk-in shower and a fantastic bathtub to enjoy your home spa after a long day. You can access the internet through Wi-Fi in the apartment, and there is also a private parking option if you arrive by car. The fully serviced apartment, the design, and all the meticulously elaborated details will guarantee that you will feel at home in Tilburg. Although this document has been prepared with great care, no rights can be derived from it. The rental agreement is inherently short-term.
